1st International Conference on Social Sciences & Law

Faculty of Social Sciences and Faculty of Law at University of Barisal will promote new thinking and explore pressing topics on research, policy and practices addressing social and legal problems.

Over the two days, a number of speakers are supposed to present different perspectives on topical issues impacting social and legal problems. Each talk will open up difficult and challenging conversations on how our societies are affected by social and legal problems and how those should be addressed.

The key note speech will be delivered on 'Law and People on the Margins of Society' by Professor Abhijit Dasgupta. He is a Professor of Sociology at Delhi University. He obtained his D.Phil degree from University of Sussex, U.K. He is a member of Advisory Committee of Gobind Pant Institute of Himalayan Environment & Development, Uttarakhand, India. Agrarian relations, population displacement and sociology in South Asia are his especial field of interest.
